6th December 2020

Hello Friends,

Can you believe that it is 19 days to Christmas. Wow, time is just flying away. We have been looking at the ways we can bring the Christmas Message to the people of our community in a way that is safe for all and yet not compromise the story that has to be shared.

Well, as you can imagine, it has been backwards and forwards with legislation and rules and the band of 6 can go out in residential areas and the public have to follow the guidelines. That said, we are unable to go to Chatham High Street as the Local Authority and the Town Centre Management are not giving permission but we will get the message out to various areas.

There has been exciting news this week about a vaccine that has been authorised – the world is excited. Sounds familiar. Over 2,000 years ago the world was excited at the arrival of something new that was going to change the world. People rebelled, disagreed, believed and came to the dirty old stable to see what the angels had proclaimed, what the stars had revealed – and they found the answer to the world's ills. It's strange today that that answer is still here, among us, in you and me; wouldn't it be just great if the world got excited again about the Greatest Story ever told – well that's up to you and me to make sure the story is shared.

This week we are sharing 'Advent Hope' a hope for us all, a hope for our family, neighbourhood, country and world. I believe it, do you?

We had a great start to Advent last week as we shared with the rest of the division as Chatham hosted the Advent Celebration with over 1,700 viewing it so far.

Let's continue in that sense of anticipation and Hope for us all. See you Sunday 10am

God bless you as you seek Him and His direction with all your hearts

Ian F Payne Major

PRAYER REQUEST

Please pray this prayer:

Father God, I pray for my church today, that you will fill each of us with your joy and peace, and that, in our worship online and at home, our fellowship and mission will overflow with hope, by the power of your Holy Spirit, in the name of your Son, Jesus Christ. Amen.

We pray that during this time of lockdown we may feel God's presence and allow Him to guide us each day, remembering that He promises to be with us and that we are all special to Him.

Pray for those who will find these next weeks to be difficult to cope with, for whatever reason, but pray that these actions will be effective in saving lives.

We all need encouragement to make the most of every day and to live the life that God inspires us to live. God is answering our prayers in amazing ways so keep talking to Him and let us know if you would like some prayer support.

We pray for our Army throughout the world but just now we pray for those in Indonesia, Ethiopia and the Philippines.

Please let Jean know of any urgent prayer requests for the supportive prayers of the Prayer Chain. Email her on jeanm1938mail.com or text on 07787718273.

Territorial Envoy

Tony McClure

I saw this poem recently on Facebook. It is a re-write of a Christmas standard. I think it speaks for itself...

Tw'as the night before Christmas,
God glanced o'er the earth
He looked to and fro,
All over its girth.
"They missed it again" He said with a sigh,
A heavy heart and a tear in His eye.

"I gave them my Son,
So they could be free.
My greatest gift,
To them, from Me.

They traded me in,
For a man dressed in red.
A little tree,
And a horse drawn sled.

How do I save them?
And make them see.
My love is complete,
My grace is free.

How do I help them?
When all they know
Is a talking snowman,
And a box with a bow.

Maybe next year,
They will stop and see:
The biggest gift of Christmas:
Is the child sent from Me."

I don't know who wrote the poem. But thank them anyway.

And as a phrase often used says:

Remember Jesus is the reason for the season.

DVD/AUDIO RECORDINGS OF THE MEETING

There are a number who receive an Audio disc of the meeting – we now have the facility to produce a Disc of the meeting that you can play in a DVD player, you can then experience the meeting in all its glory on your TV. ## Monday Deuteronomy 18:15

The Lord your God will raise up for you a prophet like [Moses] from among your own brothers. You must listen to him.

THOUGHTS ABOUT TODAY'S VERSE...

Jesus is that prophet like Moses. He has come and taught us God's truth. He has taught us with his words recorded in the Gospels. He has taught us with his example, through the deeds he has done. He is teaching us through his abiding presence in us and through the Spirit he has given us. But he teaches us most effectively when we put into practice what he has said.

H - MY PRAYER...

El Shaddai, who thundered from Mount Sinai and gave your Law to your servant Moses, I believe you are still speaking today through Jesus. Help me not only hear his voice, but listen to his message and life and put it into practice today. Gently correct and lead me in the way of obedience so that I may more perfectly glorify you with the worship of my daily life. Through Jesus I pray. Amen.

Tuesday Isaiah 7:14

The Lord himself will give you a sign: The virgin will be with child and will give birth to a son, and will call him Immanuel.

THOUGHTS ABOUT TODAY'S VERSE...

God is interested in us personally. So much so that he personally gives us this sign. Because of Matthew's explanation of the meaning of the name Immanuel, we know what that sign was - Jesus coming to live as God with us. His presence is God's presence. His life is God's sign. The miracle of his conception is God's mystery and also his statement of grace for us.

I - MY PRAYER...

Holy and Almighty Lord who refuses to be detached and far away: I thank you for coming to live among us in Jesus. I thank you and praise you for your sacrifice and pain. I know this sign cost you greatly so please let my praise in prayer, song, thought and life reflect my thanks to you in Jesus. Amen.

Wednesday Galatians 4:4-5

When the time had fully come, God sent his Son, born of a woman, born under law, that we might receive the full rights of sons.

THOUGHTS ABOUT TODAY'S VERSE...

God waited until history reached his appointed time and sent Jesus. Just the right time -- Roman rule, Jewish subordination, good roads, freedom, a degree of safety, a common trading language, cruel and barbaric punishment accompanied by religious infighting. In times such as these, he sent his Son to be a woman's son. He emptied his home so he could send a Redeemer to our home. He did it so we could be his children -- not pretend children, but real children, with full rights. So he could not only be God, but so he could be Abba.

J - MY PRAYER...

Abba Father, even your name is precious to me. I gasp at how much it cost you to let me call you Abba. I don't understand such extravagant love, but I thank you for it. I know I don't deserve to call you Abba, but it sounds so right. Something inside resonates at the sound of Abba -- Holy, Righteous, Almighty, Abba! While I know that I will never be a perfect child, I rest today in the confidence that I am your child and that you claim me. Thank you in Jesus. Amen.

Thursday Matthew 2:4-6

When King Herod had called together all the people's chief priests and teachers of the law, he asked them where the Christ was to be born. "In Bethlehem in Judea," they replied, "for this is what the prophet has written: 'But you, Bethlehem, in the land of Judah, are by no means the least among the rulers of Judah; for out of you will come a ruler who will be the shepherd of my people Israel.'

THOUGHTS ABOUT TODAY'S VERSE...

"The first will be last and the last will be first." That's one of Jesus' favourite sayings. Isn't it interesting that God said it long before he was born. Isn't it interesting that those who knew the Scriptures, but didn't know Jesus, said it too! Isn't it interesting that Herod and Jesus lived it thirty years before Jesus would teach it. Isn't it interesting that Jesus gave us the Lord's Supper to remember that while Jesus died and shed his blood, on the first day of the week, Sunday, he rose. When it matters most, Jesus and his people will finish first!

K - MY PRAYER...

You, O Lord, are marvellous. You are God Almighty, the holy and majestic Creator. Yet you became the least so I can share in your glory. Please help me, O God, never to look down on someone else because they look like the least. I know, Father, that as I serve and love them, I'm serving and loving you. In Jesus name I pray. Amen.

Friday Luke 1:26-28

God sent the angel Gabriel to Nazareth, a town in Galilee, to a virgin pledged to be married to a man named Joseph, a descendant of David. The virgin's name was Mary. The angel went to her and said, "Greetings, you who are highly favoured! The Lord is with you."

THOUGHTS ABOUT TODAY'S VERSE...

Wow! Such a familiar sentence packed with emotion. An angel comes to Nazareth to visit and speak with a young woman engaged to be married. Before the history-shattering news is announced, she is given one key reminder that will be truer than she could imagine, "The Lord is with you."

L - MY PRAYER...

My request, O God, I've sung many times: "Be with me Lord, I cannot live without Thee. I cannot bear to take one step alone." Father, I need your abiding presence to face the challenges of life. As you have upheld your children through the ages, I am thankful to greet each day knowing that I will not face it alone. In Jesus' name. Amen.

Saturday Luke 1:30-33

The angel said to [Mary], "Do not be afraid, you have found favour with God. You will be with child and give birth to a son, and you are to give him the name Jesus. He will be great and will be called the Son of the Most High. The Lord God will give him the throne of his father David, and he will reign over the house of Jacob forever."

THOUGHTS ABOUT TODAY'S VERSE...

Jesus is identified by many names stated or implied in the four Gospels (Matthew, Mark, Luke, John). Notice how Jesus is identified in just this one passage: child, son, Jesus, great, Son of the Most High, King, son of David, and leader of Israel (Jacob). Jesus exhausts all descriptions, and yet chose to be limited to imperfect descriptions by becoming human. But this flood of names and descriptions helps us find Jesus a Saviour in every trial and blessing of life. Jesus is Saviour for all seasons.

M - MY PRAYER...

Holy and Almighty Father, I thank you for all the ways Jesus is described and all the names he is given. They help me see the breadth of his nature and the depth of his character. Please bless me so I may always find a dimension of Jesus' ministry or a name or description of Jesus to help sustain me, when I walk through the shadows of doubt caused by the evil one. Help me, O Father, to see Jesus and not my preoccupations and biases so that when he comes again, I will know him, and he me. Through the glorious name of the Saviour I pray. Amen.

Sunday Luke 1:46

Mary said, "My soul glorifies the Lord and my spirit rejoices in God my Saviour.... The Mighty One has done great things for me - holy is his name."

THOUGHTS ABOUT TODAY'S VERSE...

While Mary's submission to God's will costs her in ways we can never imagine, for Jesus to come to life in the hearts of people today our attitude must be the same as her attitude was on this night of miracle and mystery. We too, must be willing to be the Lord's servant and offer him the praise of our lives and of our lips. In Jesus, the Lord has done great things for us!

N - MY PRAYER...

Majestic Father, Almighty God, you have done wonderful things for me. You have saved me from sin, you have paid the price for my rebellion, and you have given me the promise of heaven and the Holy Spirit to empower me there. You are greater than I can imagine and your glory is without comparison, yet you have stooped so low as to reach me and then raised me back up with you by your grace. I can never fully thank you, for you are more wonderful to me than my words can declare or a thousand years of life could repay. Through Jesus I give you all glory and praise.

Following Deadly Attack in Sulawesi, Indonesia

Prayer Requested

WITH great sadness, The Salvation Army confirms that an attack upon the Lewono Lembantongoa Outpost, Indonesia, on Friday 27 November 2020 has claimed the lives of four members. A Salvation Army outpost is a locality in which Army work is carried out and where it is hoped a society or corps will eventually develop.

Lewono Lembantongoa is in a very rural area of Sigi Regency, Central Sulawesi, situated on the edge of the Indonesian rainforest. During the morning of 27 November, the community was subjected to a savage attack, during which The Salvation Army's building was burned down along with six homes of members. Sadly, four members of the outpost were killed.

Major Erik Kape (Divisional Commander, East Palu) and colleague officers acted immediately to support the local leaders, coordinating with police and with government officials of the Sigi Regency and Central Sulawesi Province who are increasing protection for the villages in the area and investigating the incident.

In a press statement released across Indonesia, The Salvation Army invites all churches and religious associations – along with community members – to support each other vigilantly in these days, enhancing security through strong communication networks across the villages of the area.

Territorial Commander for Indonesia, Colonel Yusak Tampai, urges Salvationists in the region to 'remain calm but alert and careful, spreading a strong message of hope and uniting in prayer to strengthen each other'.

Throughout Indonesia on Sunday 29

November, Salvationists are called to observe a three-minute silence and to pray for grieving families and congregations, asking for God's peace to be poured upon the region. Some will be gathered for public worship while others are confined to home due to COVID-19 restrictions.

Noting that The Salvation Army serves in 131 countries and that the world continues to convulse with disturbing levels of violence affecting many of its people, General Brian Peddle, international leader of The Salvation Army, denounces any such acts.

'Throughout all aspects of Salvation Army ministry and influence we work for peace,' he says.

'We find the news from Lembantongoa greatly disturbing. Our hearts go out to our people who have been victims of evil, and to the families of those whose faith have caused such harm. I call upon all Salvationists to pray for each person who has been affected, for the continuing witness of our people, and for healing in the communities. I ask our global community to join us in this prayer, and believe that as peace finds its place, evil will be defeated.

'As General, I assure our people in Indonesia of our deep love and prayers,' he concludes.

Messages of support and unity have been received from Indonesian church leaders. The Communion of Churches in Indonesia is inviting Christian families in Indonesia to light a candle at the beginning of Advent this Sunday as a symbol of the continuing hope found in Christ. The Salvation Army is a significant church presence in Indonesia, with more than 60,000 members.

The Salvation Army in Indonesia values this unity from fellow Christians and greatly welcomes prayer support from Salvationists worldwide.
